

FINGER PRINTS

(Upon the Window Pane) After the Mid-States Four (1947)

Words and Music by Bob Miller

Edited by Dennis Driscoll

Freely, with much emotion

I had o - pened wide the shut - ters of a long de - sert - heart seemed al - most break - ing as I gath - ered from room, and here a flood of gold - en sun - shine drove a - way the drear - floor here a shoe and then a stock - ing that our li - tle darl - gloom. 'Twas while gaz - ing 'round with ten - der - ness where ba - by last wore. And I could not, tho' I loved the room one mo - ment more lain that I chanced to see her fing - er - prints up - on a win - main where those tin - y hands had left their print up - on the win -